

Engage with the knowledge, experience, and innovation of Stern students, alumni, and faculty. There are many ways to build a mutually beneficial partnership with Stern that allows your organization to:

HIRE STERN TALENT

Corporate Presentations and Coffee Chats:

Present on campus about your business, culture, and job opportunities. Engage 1:1 with students by scheduling office hours or “coffee chats.”

Resume Books and Interviews: Access tailored resume books of MBA students. Host interviews with top candidates. Post a job with us.

Networking Events: New to recruiting at Stern? Recruit “real-time” at our Career Fairs. Build connections with students and peers at industry-specific networking nights.

BUILD YOUR BRAND OFF CAMPUS

Corporate Community Building Events:

Strengthen the Stern network at your firm by hosting a unique event attended by alumni employees, graduate interns, and targeted members of Stern’s faculty and leadership.

Career Treks: Host students or executive education clients at your regional or global office to share company insights.

MBA Admissions Presentation: Be an ambassador and host an MBA Admissions Presentation in target US and global office locations.

MAKE A CONTRIBUTION

Gifts: Provide a world-class education through support of scholarships, student and alumni experience, and faculty research and innovation at www.stern.nyu.edu/giving.

Corporate Match: Enrich our educational and student aid programs by matching charitable contributions made to Stern.

GET INVOLVED ON CAMPUS

MBA Student Club Sponsorship: Partner with 40+ student groups segmented by professional and special interests to host dynamic programming and promote your organization.

Undergraduate Student Engagement:

Engage with undergraduate students by participating in career and professional development programs like workshops, treks, seminars or networking events.

Speakers and Industry Insights: Provide a C-level speaker for student events and conferences. Advise an intimate group of students on leveraging a Stern degree in your field.

LAUNCH Orientation: Elevate your brand awareness to all incoming MBA students by sponsoring a product giveaway or experience at orientation week.

ACCESS STERN EXPERTISE

Stern Solutions Projects: Engage with graduate students, under faculty advisement, to tackle your company’s business challenge during a semester or year-long for-credit project.

Academic Centers: Partner with one of 15 academic centers and institutes, directed by leading faculty experts, on industry-specific programming.

Enterprise Learning: Customize learning and development programs to challenge, inspire, and prepare your executives.

Faculty Research: Award individual faculty members with grants to support research.
