In today’s fast-paced environment, it’s critical for organizations to invest in their employees to stay competitive. Through NYU Stern Executive MBA program, companies can enable high-potential professionals to hone their business skills and have a deeper and more immediate impact on their organizations’ success.

The Executive MBA program spans 22-months with classes held Friday and Saturday, every other week. The rigorous coursework focuses on a general management core curriculum, including two required Global Study Tours in emerging markets, as well as a broad choice of electives enabling students to specialize in up to three specific business areas.

BENEFITS OF CORPORATE SPONSORSHIP

Corporate sponsors for Stern’s Executive MBA program receive a number of benefits:

- Participants bring back new and innovative perspectives from the strong curriculum, global focus, and highly experienced classmates
- Offering sponsorship opportunities gives organizations an advantage over other organizations in competing for the same talent
- Sponsorship can be used to reward exceptional performance and increase employee loyalty and retention
- Participants develop strategic, leadership, and general management skills with powerful expertise in targeted specialization areas
- Organizations see immediate results and impact, since participants are working while pursuing their degree

TYPES OF CORPORATE SPONSORSHIP

There are two different types of sponsorships.

1. Time sponsorship is support of the time employees are required to be out of the office for the program (required to apply)

   Required time out of the office includes:
   - All class days
   - ~2 Fridays and Saturdays per month for 22 months
   - 3 one-week residency periods

   One local residency at program start and two Global Study Tours

2. Financial sponsorship is the portion, if any, of the program’s cost that will be covered by the organization (not required to apply)
