

NYU Stern Fellowship Opportunities

Spring 2015 Information Session

The Office of Student Engagement
February 2015

An Education in Possible

Our objective at NYU Stern is to develop people and ideas that transform the challenges of the 21st century into opportunities to create value for business and society.

-Dean Peter Henry

THE OFFICE OF STUDENT ENGAGEMENT...

...inspires and enables you to broaden your perspective and explore your potential to create value for the world through business. Taking advantage of Stern's location at the center of global business, we offer educational experiences that transcend the 'traditional' classroom. We partner with you to create unparalleled opportunities to grow as a leader and empower you to transform ideas into action ...

WHAT IS SIIF?

The Social Impact Internship Fund (SIIF) supports first-year MBA students who wish to complete a summer internship working at the intersection of business and society, where they can use their business education to positively impact the broader world around them.

- Stipends of up to $10,000 each for a 10 week summer internship

WHO IS SIIF INTENDED FOR?

- ❖ Students committed to a professional path in the social sector
- ❖ Students pursuing a summer internship with a non-profit organization or for-profit social enterprise
- ❖ Full-time MBA students at least one year away from graduation

WHAT IS REQUIRED OF SIIF FELLOWS?

As a cohort, students who receive SIIF funding are charged with advancing SIIF marketing and fundraising efforts throughout the academic year following their summer internship. This includes:

- Building and promoting content of internship experience
- Contributing to the financial sustainability through fundraising initiatives
- Serving as an ambassador of the program

APPLICATION PROCESS

- ❖ Fellows are responsible for obtaining a summer internship for up to 10 weeks in the social sector
- ❖ Internship offer not required at time of application, but must be able to describe type of opportunity sought and internship search strategy
- ❖ Employers contribute at least $3,000 in salary or in-kind support
- ❖ Two application rounds in which applicants can apply to program
- ❖ Interview with a selection committee consisting of previous SIIF recipients and representatives from the Office of Student Engagement and the Office of Career Development
