

If you have a venture and need team members...

INSTRUCTIONS

1. Fill out your two-part Alias Card.
 - Keep Part 1 for your presentation.
 - When it's time to present, hand in Part 2 to the moderator.
2. Present your venture idea in 90 seconds.
 - Hi there. I'm [Alias]! 1 sec
 - My background is _____. 10 sec
 - My venture idea is called _____. It addresses the problem of / need for _____ by _____. 40 sec
 - I'm looking for a co-founder or team member who can _____ and/or _____. 30 sec
 - If you'd like to join my team, please be in touch. [Alias] here, signing off! 2 sec
3. There may be presentations by individuals seeking teams. Write down the aliases of interest to you:
 - _____
 - _____
 - _____
 - _____
4. Post your information to the Teammate Classifieds document.
 - Complete the survey at bit.ly/300kteammatesurvey. Don't forget to include your Alias.
 - If you completed the survey prior to the Teammate Hunt, don't fill it out twice. We will insert your Alias into the document for you.
5. Connect with teammates!
 - Stay for the networking reception, and wear your Alias Card as a nametag.
 - Browse through the Teammate Classifieds at bit.ly/300kteammateclassifieds.

PRESENTATION TIPS

- Be clear and be brief. Speak loudly and slowly, but be sure to get through your pitch in 90 seconds or less. We may have to cut you off after that time due to the large number of presenters.
- Share as much or as little of your idea as you wish. The goal here is not fundraising or even education. It is simply to generate interest in your idea so that potential teammates will contact you.
- Don't forget to tell the audience your assigned Alias!
- Don't be nervous. Instead, relax, have fun and project confidence. This is a safe environment with an open-minded audience who is excited to hear what you have to say.

If you would like to join a venture team...

INSTRUCTIONS

1. Fill out your two-part Alias Card.
 - Keep Part 1 for your presentation.
 - Hand in Part 2 to the moderator when you present, or to any staff member by the event's end.
2. We will start with presentations from existing ventures. Write down the aliases you're interested in:
 - _____
 - _____
 - _____
 - _____
3. If there is time left over at the end, we will open up the floor to those seeking ventures to join. You will have 60 seconds to introduce yourself.
 - Hi there. I'm [Alias]! 1 sec
 - My background is _____. 10 sec
 - I'd be an asset to a startup because I can _____. 30 sec
 - Optional: I'd like to join a venture or team that _____. 15 sec
 - If you're interested in recruiting me, please be in touch. [Alias] here, signing off! 2 sec
4. Post your information to the Teammate Classifieds document.
 - Complete the survey at bit.ly/300kteammatesurvey. Don't forget to include your Alias.
 - If you completed the survey prior to the Teammate Hunt, do NOT fill it out twice. We will insert your Alias into the document for you. (Don't forget to hand in your Alias Card, Part 2.)
5. Connect with venture teams!
 - Stay for the networking reception, and wear your Alias Card as a nametag.
 - Browse through the Teammate Classifieds at bit.ly/300kteammateclassifieds.

PRESENTATION TIPS

- Be clear and be brief. Speak loudly and slowly, but be sure to get through your pitch in 60 seconds.
- Sell your talent. The goal here is to generate interest so that venture teams contact you.
- Don't forget to tell the audience your assigned Alias!
- Don't be nervous. Relax and have fun. This audience is excited to hear what you have to say.