

Barbara Flusk

Senior Vice President, Clarion Partners

Barbara Flusk is an executive with 25 years of real estate accounting and finance experience. Barbara is currently a Senior Vice President of Financial Operations at Clarion Partners, a premier real estate investment firm with over $29 billion of assets under management. She is responsible for developing financial reporting policy, establishing protocol for investment reporting systems and managing the risk and internal controls program related to all accounting and finance functions. Barbara oversees the accounting team that supports single client accounts and she sets the hiring and performance goals for the entire finance group of 70 professionals. During her tenure at Clarion, she also had CFO responsibilities for ING's $500 million investment portfolio in Clarion funds and led the in-house property management accounting team.

Prior to joining Clarion Partners, Barbara was a Vice President at Deutsche Asset Wealth Management (formerly RREEF) where she headed up the property reporting group of 180 accountants and 4 regional offices.

Barbara is currently Co-Vice Chair of NCREIF's accounting committee and will assume the Co-Chair role in 2015-2016. She is also a member of WX (New York Woman Executives in Real Estate) where she is a delegate of the membership committee. She formerly held the position of Vice President of Membership for ING's New York Toastmasters Club Orange chapter from 2010-2011.

Barbara is a Certified Public Accountant and holds a Bachelors of Science degree in Accounting from Thomas Edison State College.
