

Joyce Chang

Global Head of Research, J.P. Morgan

Joyce Chang is the Global Head of Research and a member of the management committee for J.P.Morgan's Corporate & Investment Bank. J.P. Morgan's award-winning Global Research provides clients with informed views and actionable ideas on economic indicators, markets and companies around the world. J.P. Morgan's Global Research department has more than 900 analysts located in 26 countries.

J.P. Morgan holds top industry research rankings and has ranked #1 for U.S. equity and fixed income research and European fixed income research in Institutional Investor's and Greenwich Associates research surveys since 2010.

From 1997 through 2012, Joyce held top rankings in Institutional Investor's Fixed-Income Research surveys for Emerging Markets research, including the distinction of earning 25 #1 individual rankings. In 2014, she was inducted into the Fixed Income Analyst Society Hall of Fame.

Prior to joining J.P. Morgan in 1999, Joyce was a Managing Director at Merrill Lynch and Salomon Brothers.

She is a member of the Council on Foreign Relations and the Inter-American Dialogue and serves on the Board of Directors of Trickle Up and Girls Inc. She also co-chairs J.P. Morgan's Corporate and Investment Bank Women's Network.

She has been named as one of Top 25 Most Powerful Women in Finance by American Banker for the past four consecutive years and recognized by the Wall Street Journal (Top 50 Women to Watch), Crain's Business New York (40 Under 40), the Asian American Business Development Council (Outstanding 50 Asian Americans in Business) and the Women's Bond Club (Annual Merit Award).

She received her B.A. from Columbia University and won the College's John Jay Award in 2014. She earned a Master of Public Affairs from the Woodrow Wilson School at Princeton University.