V. Required Materials

In order for your application to be considered, you must submit this form with the supporting documentation by the deadline of February 1, 2015.

- A completed Loan Assistance Program pre-application.
- A personal statement, not exceeding 500 words, describing the organization, the nature of the position, your reasons for taking the position, the contributions you are or will be making to the organization using your MBA skills, and your long-term career goals. This information may be shared with program donors.
- Your current resume.
- A list of current extracurricular activities and past activities and achievements that demonstrate a commitment to providing social benefit.
- Verification of your total loan balance at graduation and current outstanding loan balance from lenders or servicers, including a summary statement of total outstanding loan balances, required monthly repayment (if known) and history of previous loan payments (if any). This information must be current and can be pulled from the National Student Loan Data System (<http://www.nslds.ed.gov>) for federal loans. For private loans, you will need to contact your lender directly for this information.
- An unofficial transcript showing courses completed and currently enrolled.
- If you already have a job offer, a current letter from your employer/supervisor indicating the start date of employment, the nature of your position, hours worked per week, and your annual salary (including any bonuses, commissions, housing allowances and other financial remuneration).
- Information about the organization, its mission, program activities and demonstration of clear public benefit (e.g., annual report, brochure).

I have read the Loan Assistance Program Description and Policies. I hereby certify that all information provided with this application is truthful. I am aware that any misrepresentation of facts in any part of this application will lead to the denial or revocation of Loan Assistance funds. I acknowledge that this application does not automatically guarantee acceptance into the Loan Assistance Program.
