Invites you to a forum on:

Corporate Governance of Not-for-Profit Organizations

Experts from the not-for-profit sector, industry, regulatory agencies, government, legal and accounting professions and academia will discuss key issues related to the governance and control of not-for-profit organizations. In particular, this forum will address the role of boards of directors and various aspects of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act, which may be applicable to not-for-profit entities due to their reliance on public funding and their special tax status.

This event is made possible by the generous support of Mark S. Lilling and The Audit Committee Consulting Team LLC.
